

CLIMATE ACTION IN SG

An e-newsletter on Singapore's sustainable development and climate action efforts

Singapore-Indonesia MoU on Climate Change

Minister Fu hosting Minister Luhut at the TuasOne Waste-to-Energy Plant

On 21 March 2022, Singapore and Indonesia signed a Memorandum of Understanding on Climate Change and Sustainability. Under the MoU, both nations will cooperate on carbon pricing and markets, nature-based solutions and an ecosystem-based approach, clean technology and solutions, and green and blended finance. Ms Grace Fu, Singapore's Minister for Sustainability and the Environment, hosted Indonesia's Coordinating Minister for Maritime Affairs and Investment Luhut Binsar Pandjaitan at the TuasOne Waste-to-Energy Plant, where insights on Singapore's approach to waste management.

Read the National Climate Change Secretariat's press release here.

Meeting with Egypt Foreign Affairs Minister Sameh Shoukry

On 17 March 2022, Minister Grace Fu met with Egypt's Foreign Minister and COP-27 President-designate Sameh Shoukry. They spoke on the importance of advancing progress on key issues, including climate mitigation, adaptation, loss and damage, and climate finance. They also discussed ways to rally Parties and non-Party stakeholders towards advancing climate action, and affirmed the importance of continued bilateral cooperation in environmental sustainability.

Minister Sameh Shoukry and Minister Fu

Read Minister Fu's Facebook post here.

Meeting with Regent of Pahang

On 14 March 2022, Mr Desmond Tan, Singapore's Minister of State for Sustainability and the Environment, met with the Regent of Pahang His Royal Highness Tengku Hassanal Ibrahim Alam Shah. They discussed opportunities for Singapore and Pahang companies to collaborate to adopt sustainable high-tech farming practices and improve food yields. They also exchanged views on the challenges and opportunities brought about by climate change.

Expo Dubai – Water, Energy and Food for Cities, Industry and Agriculture Seminar

In a keynote speech at the Expo Dubai Water Track Seminar, Minister Grace Fu shared Singapore's strategies to safeguard water security through technology, and its plans to further reduce the energy consumption of water treatment processes.

Read MOS Tan's Facebook post here.

Watch Minister Fu's speech here.

Parliament: Committee of Supply 2022 debates

At the Committee of Supply 2022 debates in Singapore Parliament on 7 - 8 March, Minister Grace Fu gave an update on the progress of the Singapore Green Plan 2030, and shared on the efforts made to empower and partner communities in the green transition. Senior Minister of State for Sustainability and the Environment, Dr Amy Khor, spoke on public cleanliness and support for Singapore's hawker culture, while Minister of State Desmond Tan spoke on how Singapore was building up climate resilience, including food and water security.

Learn more about MSE's plans here.

Minister Fu and participants of the Green Plan Conversation

Green Plan Conversation on a Resilient Future

On 25 March 2022, Minister Grace Fu, citizens and key stakeholders convened for a Green Plan Conversation to discuss the latest Working Group II report from the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC). The Conversation touched on the measures Singapore is taking and can explore, to strengthen climate resilience. Participants also shared their ideas on how businesses and citizens could play a part in shaping Singapore's greener future.

Read Minister Fu's Facebook post here.

